GENERAL CONTRACTOR MEMBER
RESIDENTIAL BUILDER MEMBER
SPECIALTY CONTRACTOR MEMBER

My firm performs on-site construction. All General Contractors, Residential Builders, and Specialty Contractors are entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership, which include serving as an officer or director, receiving a key to the planrooms, receiving The Blueprint and other publications, the right to participate in all educational programs and social activities, and participate in group insurance programs. Companies must have at least one full-time employee other than a secretary or bookkeeper.

SERVICE PROVIDER

A Service Provider Member is a member who does not perform any on-site construction, but provides services or supplies to those who perform on-site construction. This category is for material suppliers, equipment dealers, architects, engineers, and insurance agents. Service Providers have all the rights and privileges of General Contractor, Residential Builder, and Specialty Contractor Members, with the exception that they cannot serve as President, Vice President or Treasurer of the Association.

SUPPORT MEMBER

A Support Member is a member who is not actively engaged in on-site construction or does not receive a substantial portion of his/her income from the construction industry, but may wish to take advantage of the insurance programs, educational programs, or social activities. A support member shall not be eligible to vote, to hold office, to receive The Blueprint, or receive any association services other than those specifically mentioned above.

CONTRACT DUES

All general contractors, residential builders, and specialty contractors who actively engage in job site construction shall be required to pay 2/10 of 1% ($2.00 per $1,000) on all construction work. The maximum contract dues for any calendar year shall be $5,525. (The member shall not be required to pay on work subcontracted to other members of this association for construction work. Material suppliers such as ready-mix concrete and lumber suppliers are not to be treated as subcontractors. Contract dues shall not be assessed on single contracts under $5,000 each for service work. Contract dues shall not be assessed on residential construction. Note for clarification: Residential work consists of one single family dwelling or one duplex dwelling on one lot.)

Firms holding multiple memberships shall be required to pay contract dues on all wholly-owned subsidiaries involved in on-site construction in the territorial jurisdiction of this chapter up to a maximum of $8,000 for all firms combined.

All members engaged in construction site work shall report monthly on forms provided by the Chapter all contracts or subcontracts received by the member in the previous month. These forms shall be called contract dues reporting forms and they may be reviewed by the Board of Directors at each monthly meeting. Visiting contractors shall pay the same rate for contract dues, 2/10 of 1%, as local members of the association. The maximum contract dues for any member shall be five thousand five hundred twenty five dollars ($5,525) per year.

MINIMUM CONTRACT DUES

All General Contractors and Specialty Contractors shall be required to pay a minimum of $375 per calendar year in contract dues. All Residential Builders shall be required to pay a minimum of $325 per calendar year in contract dues.

As of June 1 of each year, those contractors who have not reported enough work to generate the minimum amount in contract dues at that time will be billed for the balance. The minimum contract dues applies to all contractors who perform job site construction services, regardless of whether the work is commercial or residential.
